Moſcow, May 24, O. S.

COUNT Pototzky arrived here the 20th Inſtant, and had Yeſterday his firſt Audience of her Czariſh Majeſty as Envoy Extraordinary of the King and Republick of Poland. Lieutenant General Romanſoff, one of the Senators, Lieutenant Colonel of the Preobrazenzsky Guards, and Knight of St. Alexander, who was formerly Ambaſſadour at Conſtantinople, and not long ſince commanded in Perſia, is in Diſgrace.

Stockholm, June 16, O. S. The States have been aſſembled all this Week, Morning and Afternoon, to diſpatch the moſt material Affairs; others of leſs Importance will be remitted to the King and Senate; both the one and the other relate only to Domeſtick Affairs. To-morrow the Separation of the Diet will be proclaimed for next Saturday, Friday being a great Feſtival here. The Senators Largerberg, Stromfelt, Tornflycht, Barck, Hard, Cronſtedt, and Creutz, were Yeſterday made Counts; all the other Senators were ſo before. M. von Kochen, Major General Lowen, Budenbrock, Furſtemberg, and Roſen, were made Barons. The Dutcheſs of Mecklenbourg is expected here ſoon; her Highneſs's Arrival will determine the Day of the King of Sweden's Departure, his Majeſty propoſing at preſent the 28th or 30th Inſtant; but it is not yet reſolved where his Majeſty will land; and a Secret will be made of the Place, to avoid Invitations and Ceremony.

Copenhagen, June 30, N. S. The King of Denmark ſet out for Holſtein on the 28th Inſtant, with the Queen, and two Princeſſes, his Aunt and his Siſter. The High Chamberlain, M. Blome, General Lewennoern, and M. von Hagen, are gone along with the Court. Their Excellencies Meſſ. Pleſſen and Ronſenkrauts remain here. The Journey, according to the preſent Regulation of it, ſhould conclude in 22 Days.
